

NJAKE Middlesex County Workshop

“Making Literature Come Alive in an Early Childhood Classroom”

Tuesday, December 9, 2014

4:15 pm- 6:30 pm

St. John Vianney School, 420 Inman Ave. Colonia, NJ

Our presenter is Jennifer Horling, NJAKE Executive Council Member, and former Kindergarten Teacher. Jennifer recently presented this workshop at the NJEA Convention in Atlantic City on November 6, 2014.

Come join us for a fun filled evening learning about how educators can use a variety of children’s books and learn how to use inexpensive materials to create story props which engages students in the retelling process. This workshop is tied to the Common Core State Standards.

There will be a light dinner and vendors to visit. Participants will receive 1.5 professional hours.
